

DLOMO DAM Today

Nicho Ntema EXCLUSIVE DLOMO DAM ALBUM

DLOMO DAM Today

Blomo Dam Today is a collection of photographs I personally take, edit and publish on my visits to Dlomo Dam. I usually do these visits whenever I feel like and every visit has its own experience and feel.

TODAY WAS A GOOD SUNNY DAY AT DLOMO DAM. THIS INSPIRED THIS PHOTO SHOOT THAT BECAME THIS ALBUM.

I HOPE YOU WILL ENJOY IT...

Acknowledgements

My journey into the lives of birds came as a result of me being contracted as a local service provider to Birdlife South Africa for the development of the Vaal Birding Route. The following are people I would like to thank for making this journey possible:

Etienne Marais | Puleng Van Wyk | Martin Taylor
Rene Pelsler | Rosemary Anderson | Maipato Tsokolibane | Jacqui Kitching

The following institutions and entities made all this possible too:

Gauteng Tourism Authority | Birdlife SA | Sedibeng District Municipality
Stonehaven on Vaal | Riverside Hotel

THANK YOU

Dlomo Dam remain the mystery to this day. It has links to the 21 March 1960 Sharpeville Massacre and everything that is Sharpeville. Despite many drownings and suicides that happened there, Dlomo Dam remain the most peaceful place in Sharpeville.
